

Soil Moisture Probe with protective cap installed on connector end prior to installation. Connector allows multiple probes to be connected in series for monitoring of various depths of the waste zone.

Moisture probe with penetrometer installed
prior to installation in the Subsurface
Disposal Area (SDA).

